Company renewal

Every company will need to renew annual, to keep the Company in Good Standing status. The due date of the renewal depends on the regulation of local incorporated jurisdiction.

The Annual Return provides a snapshot or updates of general information about your company, including details of directors and company secretary if you have appointed one, the registered office, share capital and shareholdings, any change over last year etc.

Shelf companies list

Shelf Company was created and left with no activity. The company can then be sold to a person or group of persons who wish to start a company without going through all the procedures of creating a new one.

Common reasons for buying a shelf corporation:

- To save the time involved in taking the steps to create a new corporation.
- To gain the opportunity to bid on contracts. Some jurisdictions require that a company is in business for a certain length of time to have this ability.
- To show corporate longevity in order to attract consumers or investors.
- To gain access to corporate credit.

Nominee (Shareholder & Director)

Professional Nominee services, where directors or shareholders/members are provided by One IBC. They will represent for your company.

For Director Nominee, Rights of your company will be fully & legally protected by Power Of Attorney. For Share Nominee, Issuing a Declaration of Trust free of loopholes helps you to certify your full ownership of your shares while the nominee represents for you.

For start up company, interim management is necessary in the first time, so we provide interim managers including experienced experts are ready for various positions such as HR Directors, CFOs and CIOs.

Change Agent

When you first approach incorporation of an offshore company in your business you start with tax planning and legal matters, it does not mean you will not have any issues in future. We mention about what you should pay attention to services of your current registered agent. You have to choose the proper provider or registered agent to serve your offshore structure during its lifetime. If one day you realize that you are not happy with your choice, we can support you change registered agent.

A trust is a three-party agreement in which the owner of an estate, or the trust's "grantor," transfers the legal title to assets to somebody else (the trustee) for the purpose of benefiting one or more third parties (the beneficiaries). Trusts may be revocable or irrevocable, for this reason, the government considers the specified assets to still be included in the grantor's taxable estate.
